GOVERNMENT’S NOTICE CONCERNING THE DECISION OF THE SOLICITOR GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES

In keeping with its commitment to update the Court concerning the final decision in this matter, the government reports that the Solicitor General of the United States has ordered this office to pursue an appeal of this Court’s inventory search ruling suppressing the gun found in the Nissan. The government expects a briefing schedule to issue soon, and it will endeavor to file its opening brief ahead of the due date. If the defense responds in timely fashion, it is possible the appeal may be argued in the January or February sittings.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSHUA S. LEVY
Acting United States Attorney
